VISION

Edition - 4 : 1st Quarter - 2024 (April - July)

From The Principal's Desk

Dear SDJMS Family

I am thrilled to extend my warmest congratulations to each and every one of you on our school's remarkable milestone of 25 years. As Principal, I am honoured to witness the unwavering commitment, dedication, and passion that have shaped our institution into a beacon of excellence.

Over the years, our organization has not only imparted knowledge but also nurtured character, integrity, and resilience. Our state-of-the-art infrastructure, vast playgrounds, and innovative programs have facilitated holistic growth, both intellectually and emotionally. Our emphasis on moral values, hard work, and dedication has prepared our students to face challenges head-on.

As we celebrate this milestone, I am reminded of Martin Luther King Jr.'s wise words- "The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and adversity." SDJMS has consistently risen to these challenges, fostering scientific temper and rational enlightenment.

I extend my heartfelt appreciation to our management, administration, teaching and non-teaching staff, parents, and students for their tireless efforts in making our Silver Jubilee Celebration a success. I wish our school many more years of attainment, growth and impact.

With warm regards

Chetan Dalwala

Principal

Grandparents Bonding

Vihan Agarwal
Class : 3-B

Kids are bonded with grandparents with those beautiful invisible chords, a little different from the one with their parents, magical in a different way. When we don't get more time to spend with our parents, let our children go, fill the space, and take back love and hugs more than they give and above all let them enjoy the feeling of holding the treasure within them. The bunch of memories that lie buried for years and may come out in the most unlikely moments in their life. People love surprises don't they ?

I skimmed through mother newspaper article about the secure grandfather of the kids says that, "they are ll well aware of the forest and have been taught hunting and fishing in their early childhood."

Importance of Family

Arjun Kishore (Class : III - A)

The role of the family is not limited to giving birth to offspring. The family performs the role of a social coordinator in an individuals life. A child learns about his identity in the family. Parents usually understand enough to give adequate freedom to their children. children develop their decision - making power in the family. They learn problem solving behaviour and this become fully functioning person.

The role of the family has changed over the years. Earlier families played an essential part in taking care of older adults. Nowadays, this function has been taken up by external agencies like old age home. However the family continues to be the most important social institution. Nobody can survive without the security and physochological assistance of the family.
